

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators whose significant contributions of time and energy help ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Deborah Kay Bollmeyer of Lexington, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a teacher in the Lexington R-V School District, a vocational calling that she will draw to a close at the end of the 2007-2008 school year in well-deserved retirement after thirty-four years of service; and

Whereas, currently serving as a first grade teacher, Deborah Bollmeyer previously taught third grade for twenty-nine years; and

Whereas, Deborah Bollmeyer prepared for her diverse educational endeavors by earning a Bachelor of Science degree in education from the University of Central Missouri with twenty extra graduate hours in a guidance and counseling program; and

Whereas, Deborah Bollmeyer helped guarantee the highest standards of conduct and performance in her chosen field of endeavor through her membership and participation in the Missouri State Teachers Association and Community Teachers Association, as the district coordinator for the science curriculum, and as the science chairperson; and

Whereas, no stranger to honors and accolades, Deborah Bollmeyer has been listed in Who's Who Among American Teachers, elected as an officer of MSTA and CTA, and named as District Teacher of the Year by MSTA; and

Whereas, a former substitute teacher in the Raytown school district, Deborah Bollmeyer was president and vice president of the Lexington Welcome Wagon for ten years; and

Whereas, the beloved wife of Larry Bollmeyer, Deborah Bollmeyer is justifiably proud additionally to be known as the loving mother of Jon and Carrie Bollmeyer and of Tiffany Bollmeyer and as the soon-to-be grandmother of Andrew Michael Bollmeyer, who is due on May 24, 2008:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Deborah Bollmeyer and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Deborah Kay Bollmeyer of Lexington, Missouri.
